Ball hugger, ball hugger, ball hugger, Bo! This one goes
Out to all the hard-asses who think their holier than Thou. I get a kick out of you when I go out.
Playing in the sandbox with the well-endowed.
OH SO PROUD.

Kiss that kiss-hug that hug.
A ball hugger's work is never done. Well don't forget we
Remember everything you say.
You look and feel like you have lost ya way. Like a fool
You answer all of my ways. You find a fool and live for Another day.

You get along in tricks, just to get your kicks. Do Everything I said just to get along. One heart that's Cold, one heart that's sold.
Hey lets watch that punk try to stand proud (well-Endowed) Well don't forget we remember everything that
You say.
With your look and appeal like the undead.

One heart that's hypocritical, a personality that's Cynical. You don't want to rest yet, you don't want to Rest your way.
