Hello, you think you're all alone
When everybody knows
We all have the scars inside
That tear us apart night after night
Is this where you are?

Step out to the light, come outside
Step out to the day, it'll be okay
We're all the same, don't be afraid
Let your freedom begin
Let your freedom begin here

Goodbye, gone are the days
We buy the lie
We try to pretend we're doing fine
But we're not right, we're not right
Is this where you are?

Step out to the light, come outside
Step out to the day, it'll be okay
We're all the same, don't be afraid
Let your freedom begin
Let your freedom begin here

All the secrets that we keep
Are making us who we don't wanna be It's killing us like we're drowning in the sea
Just coming up, we're just coming up for air
Tell me, are you there?

Step out to the light and come outside
Step out to the day, it'll be okay
We're all the same, don't be afraid

Step out to the light, come outside
Step out to the day, it'll be okay
We're all the same, don't be afraid
Let your freedom begin
Let your freedom begin here
