

Leftovers For Andy

"Running Wild"

Mysterious paths were opening for you
But you still couldn't find the way
In the fields of grace you were lost
Lost until I found you

Yeah!
That little child inside
With devilish thorns
Is running wild
And I'm that child
Running Wild
Into flames

Don't run away 'cause they say so
You're chosen to be here

And that's for me to decide
Never go hide when that little child
Makes you go wild

Woah!
That little child inside
With devilish thorns
Is running wild
And I'm that child
Running Wild
Into flames

You're coming with me
Into the flames

Running wild
Into the flames
