Hungry, we're really hungry
Two months without food is too much
General feeling of a population
Who had lost the rationality
Amazed eyes, witness of barbaria
Victims falling without control
Listen to our minds saying stop
And to our vital cells asking for more

You eat my leg I eat your hand
In turns inside the massacre
Morbid feelings inside us
Highest point of ecstasy
Cannibalistic revolution

Tasting human flavour
Like simple daily meat
Less people are alive
Inside the rules of the strongest one
Only at deadline you can see
What's a human able to do
All's good to keep your life
All's good to eat their life
