I remain here in this endless path,
Watching those burning lights
I feel afraid deep inside while the creatures of the Night
Lead me to a cold valley
I try to keep serenity,
In this timeless journey I'll be forever forgotten
My tears are falling, I tumble in the dark
And the feeling of desperation fills up my heart
I cannot breath, The wind is calling for me
I must resist, Desperation and fear

I can see those lights, The souls remain burning for Eternity
This endless path, Open your wings and fly...
Those lights are shining, heating up with their flame
I'm not afraid anymore, and I'm ready to walk back now
I can't get out... Desperation fills my heart again
I cry and scream, but there's nothing or no one to get me
Out
Forever Forgotten
