"Come Alive"

In an empty room without any doors
All is painted black
And it seems like there's no way out

Wake up from this dream
Knowing it's not true
Knowing everything is fake
But I can't lose the pain I feel
Even if I know it's not real

I can pray everyday and all night just to hear you say
The Words that make my world slows down
The words that make me live
I can pray everyday and all night just to see smile
Smile that makes my life go on Smile that makes my heart and soul come alive uhhhhh
come alive

Outside this dark room
Beyond this stone wall
In a place I can see
You are sitting there, waiting for me
I'm trying to imagine your face in front of me
I'm trying to remember the sound of your soulful voice
Giving me the strength that I need
