(Crowe)

My invisible partner in travel
You're never in your seat always tryin' to unravel the love we make While I try to forget
Forgettin's only temporary
In the middle of nothing
My eyes get weary I feel like crying
I don't often do
Danielle, you know I love you

I got on my travelling face
I know the obstacles
Adapt to the pace
And the different shape
Of a bottle of beer

Four months now stretch out before me
No one in my heart is going to call me from the other room
Expecting me to move
Danielle, Danielle, Danny I love you

How long was it last time
We tortured each other
To the point of cryin' when we finally touched
Too late in the day
As we so often do
You know I love you
But do you trust me?
She angles her head
Do you trust me?
I wish I had said
More than I did
Say, more than you know
If I could only trust myself
Our love could grow

Danielle, Danielle, Danielle, Danny I love you
Danielle, Danielle, Danielle, Danny I love you
Danielle, Danielle, Danielle . . .

Hey Danny
