Unchanging

Â

I know sometimes it's hard to see your plans for me

When the sun refuse to shine

And though sometimes the rain would fall

It seems no hope at all

Lord help me see your way

Even though it seems life keeps changing

You remain the same

You remain the same

Â

Chorus

Unchanging

Â

As darkness falls it covers me

Doubt obscures the light of day

Making right seem so wrong

And all my dreams now seem to fade as seasons change

And here I stand alone again away from you

But even though it seems that I'm fading

You remain the same

You remain the same

Â

Chorus

Unchanging

Â

Even though it seems that I'm fading

You remain the same

Yes you do

You remain the same!
