you say you want it all to dip your fingers in the green

you say you want it all the sun, the moon, and what's in between

you want the world to know your face baby haven't you heard every star can be replaced ride the product line
hop in your box but don't protest you just been signed
to the three ring bull!*!? business

it's a players ball and the pimps come in black and white and that's about all as I turn in this song to my pimp tonight [chorus]

oh, you ask me how you can win

how many walls you gon' have to break down to get in

oh, oh, oh

as you're steady pushin' through

don't let it be breakin' you some who have it all are one big shiny lie they're selling us a story they know that we're gonna buy

but don't you let them fool you baby they can't sleep at night their mirror shows a reflection of a person that they don't like

check your brain at the door then hang it up with your originality I can't say no more

'cause if I do then they won't let you hear from me [chorus]
there ain't no real love up in here

there ain't no

if you're lookin for real love up in here if you're lookin for gotta bring your own real love up in here bring your own [chorus]
