My My My

I've got the life taker on my left and the girl on my right

The sounds, the lights, the crowd

Calling to me from every direction saying

My My My

This is it, it's the time just let your instinct take the drive

All arms and legs, please keep them inside

This moving vehicle at all times

Hold your breath as the room spins round

We'll dance till there's nothing left

Let us out, it's time to steal this town

Boys Boys

Hands towards the ceiling

Girls Girls

Shake it to the floor

Make a sound and start breaking out

Boys Boys

High on that feeling

Girls Girls

Say you want it more

I said oh my god

They didn't lie when they told me that I hadn't ever fallen so hard

On the ground, or for her, either way I don't know

Can someone tell me why she decided to...

Pull yourself together now

You know exactly what's going on

Snap out of this feeling here

That's got you terrified and so gone

On the lawn, freaked out at the bar, take me home

I just want to spend the rest of this night alone

Hold your breath as the room spins round

Let us out, it's time to steal this town
Boys Boys
Hands towards the ceiling
Girls Girls
Shake it to the floor

Make a sound and start breaking out
Boys Boys
High on that feeling
Girls Girls
Say you want it more
