To you I'm just a friend
That's where it ends
To you
That's who I am
Someone that you can come to
When somebody breaks your heart to talk to Someone who always cares
Your heart's with someone else
But who's always there
Who's always there to catch the tears
When they fall
Who do you run to
Who do you always call
Who's there with the shoulder when you're feeling sad
When will you see me as more than that
Who's always there to catch the tears
To me You're everything
You're all I need
To me
That's who I see
Someone I love to run to
To hold in my arms and I like to come to Someone to share my life
Your heart's with someone else
But who's standing by

Who's standing by to catch the tears
When they fall
Who do you run to
Who do you always call
Who's there with the shoulder when you're feeling sad
When will you see me as more than that
Was always there to catch the tears
Oh I wish you would see me as more than just a friend
You come to
When somebody breaks your heart to talk to Someone who always care
Your heart's with someone else
But who's always there

Who's always there to catch the tears
When they fall

Who do you run to
Who do you always call
Who's there with the shoulder when you're feeling sad
When will you see me as more than that
Who's always there to catch the tears
Who's always there to catch the tears
Catch the tears
