Whatever it is you want I dont care about that But I'll give it to grace to fall down on your face

Sentimental Rose heres on fire all to mend this heart

cuz no one knows you
in this town
no you wont be hanging around
oh girl

all to mend this heart

no more pity for the loves that fallen the tiger has risen to raise the warning lines in the sand dont mean nothing at all its all been great it all looks like good now im gonna dance like i should oh girl where'd you come from

oh to mend this heart
we go

since you been out its been harder girl black magic thorns
the flowery walls and girl this is our last dance its all been great it all looks good now im gonna dance like i should have done such a long time ago
