Well, can you tell me more
Well, I believe I hear you callin'
Well, is it hard to run
Well, I believe I hear you callin', callin' ooh

Believe I been, so gettin' tired
Against this wind that blows
But sometimes it ain't no use in tryin
When you're gone, tonight

Well, is it hard to run in the rain
Well, darlin' cool my little breeze, yeah
And is it right to be here now
And is it right to be here now, be here, say now

Oh, sister contine light my wings
Glide on by, through the words you're singin', yeah
Oh, sister contine light my wings
Glide on by, through the words you're singin'

Well, can you tell me more
Well, I believe I hear you callin', callin'
Well, is it hard to run
Well, I believe I hear you callin', callin'

For we belong in the sun [Incomprehensible]
My darling one
We belong in the sun [Incomprehensible]
My darling one

Hail, hail for the king is here
Yes, to pull the salt from your tears
And into your manic eye
The desert sand and stone does fly

Well, is it hard to run in the rain
Well, darlin' cool my little breeze, yeah
Well, is it right to be here now
Well, is it right to be here now, be here now, say now

Oh, sister contine light my wings
Glide on by, through the words you're singin', yeah

Oh, sister contine light my wings
Glide on by, through the words you're singin'

Well, sister light, sister contine she comes
In the light she brings
Well, is it hard to run
Down in the rain, yeah

Oh, sister contine light my wings
Glide on by, through the words you're singin'
Well, can you tell me more
Well, I believe I hear you callin'
And yes it's hard to run
