Sit down, I wanna tell you what I feel right now
Like there's nothing left for us to talk about
The words won't come out
They won't come out

Write it down, I got everything to say
Scream it out, you wouldn't listen anyway
The words won't come out
The words won't come out

Every morning it's a battle just to wake up
All hate, no love when you break up
And they say we can find out if we start right now
They say we can find out

It's been three years since I knew who I was
And I swear that I'm too young
The words won't come out
The words won't come out

And all speak and none said
It echoes through my head
The words won't come out
The words won't come out

Every morning it's a battle just to wake up
All hate, no love when you break up
And they say we can find out if we start right now
They say we can find out

And everyday I'm feeling more alone
Would You call out to me? 'Cause I want to believe
And I can't make it out here on my own
Would You call out to me? 'Cause I want to believe

And everyday I'm feeling more alone
Would You call out to me? 'Cause I want to believe
And I can't make it out here on my own
Would You call out to me? 'Cause I want to believe

Every morning it's a battle just to wake up
All hate, no love

And they say we can find out if we start right now
They say we can find out

And they say we can find out if we start right now
They say we can find out
