that was your mom who I just informed now go back to bed while it's still warm not one thing you need that is not in this lair lay down your arms - you're under my care

close those eyes
goodnight-night to you
go and doze off
this cold winter through and see what time will do let's pull up a chair now Janosch is here for Ich mach dich gesund, sagte der Bär and when you're fast asleep I will play with your hair through my tears I will breathe you're under my care

the curtain's drawn the sun long gone

no, I won't take a straight no from you and when spring arrives we will have to see if you're sick of life or - maybe - me
