(Katy B)

The moonlight and the heat has got us on the street my heart is thumping like the beat as you walk up to me the light reflecting on my skin has got you wondering how it would feel to hold me Open up your heart
i see the colour red
my cheeks are blushing too from thoughts inside my head open up your eyes
i see the colour blue
im sure that i could fall in love with you

(Amelle Berrabah)

Hold me, move my body like you want to just control me, I don't mind with you were dancing slowly hold me like its just us in this space oh face to face now your looking at me in this human space in a different setting to our usual case hold me like its just us in this space

(Katy B)

So you make over your way like predator to prey i search for clever words to say but nothing comes my way i start to panic still I stand as your reach for my hand and I whisper come ons too

Open up your heart
