i've made more mistakes than i can count upon my finger tips
i have been ashamed and i have felt as guilty as all sin counting every tear that drops cannot account for any loss i'll let the past remain behind me now fill it up with goodness i'll drink it down with love never give up on me

i will never give up on you you're everything i need oh just look at what we've been through so far so good

i have wished on every star that shot across my broken heart
i am still amazed that you came true i have kissed a hundred lips but none of them compare to this i have found myself inside of you you forgive my sad regrets and i forgive myself

i love you
