i know you're sleeping i hope you're dreaming all about us i can remember your body moving through the shadows
i have never been so in love i thank god above that i found you darling and i know it's a miracle i can see into everything we are

i can't remember my past is over i've found happiness
i have surrendered all of my yesterdays
for just one taste of this i hear your heart beat it's in my memory just like sugar kiss me like candy as warm as summer sweet as kindness i have never been so far gone i believe in god i believe in you and i know when i close my eyes i will see the light come on shining through

i can't remember my past is over
i've found happiness

i can sleep at last in your arms all i want is for you to love me back

i can't remember my past is over
i've found happiness

i've found happiness
