I got a house full of walls
And utility bills, every Monday the company calls I got a nice bed to sleep on And a chest of drawers, where I keep those dreams of yours

Cause you're always mine to keep when you're gone Two silver rings, one's on my finger and the other
one's gone
Went underground with you, oh John

Ten years pass
And I ended up with a house full of cats
But most of them went missing From that window you never fixed, and the door you never latched

But you were on your way out the last time...

Cause you are always mine to keep when you're gone

one's gone
they went underground with you, oh John

I knew what you was doing That summer when Candie came around But I had too much hurt to bother you When we lost our first child I thought a little payment was overdue

And I wanted you so bad...

Cause you are always mine to keep when you're gone
one's gone
They went underground with you, oh John

I miss you
I miss you
I miss you
I miss you...

Oh John....
