Do I want to say the things that I say, when I know that they are wrong?

Do I wait here forever for you? Did you ask me to?

I've been waiting here all night, if you're not gonna show we're not gonna fight.

I could stay forever if i tried surrounded by things like a shadow in the light.

Do I try and stay still for you? And the clouds would part in here with the emptiness of the room.

Do you watch me from the corner of your eye? Do we say goodbye?

I waited in the wings for you to appear but you're never coming back, it's never gonna feel like we did.

I waited all night, I tried to let you go like a shadow in the light, the light.

Do I wait?

Do I wait for you?

Do I wait?

Do I wait for you?

Do I wait here forever for you? Did you ask me to?
