What makes them walk away, after all these years?
These years are burning in the hard way by the lessons from the tears
I know it's not a game
But it feels like losing when someone you love throws
you away
I'd fix it
I'd fix it
I'd fix it
I'd fix it if I could
And I'd always win
I'd always win
So you can always win in the end

How easy was it for you making those plans you made?
Before I became someone for you you know to try to dislocate

But, I know it's not a game
But it feels like losing when someone you love gets up and walks away
I'd fix it
I'd fix it
I'd fix it
I'd fix it if I could
And I'd always win
I'd always win
And you'd always lose

Look what I did to you
Look what you did to me
Fixed it
I'd fix it, id fix it if I could
And I'd always win
I'd always win
I'd always win in the end
