Memories of you that I just don't have
Right now, I make them up
One cup of wanting you
Two cups of hoping somehow
These things come true
While I'm staring at pictures of you
While I'm staring at pictures of you
Yearning, longing, making up memories of you
Making up memories of you
For now, your picture'll do
Dialing you up in my sleep when the night's wearing thin
Won't make it right
My reasons to want to
And a hundred reasons to lie
When I don't want to
While I'm staring at pictures of you
While I'm staring at pictures of you
Yearning, longing, making up memories of you
Making up memories of you
For now, your picture'll do
Memories of you that I just don't have
Right now, I make them up
One cup of wanting you
Two cups of hoping somehow
These things come true
While I'm staring at pictures of you
While I'm staring at pictures of you
Yearning, longing, making up memories of you
Making up memories of you
