pawn shop ain't no place for a wedding ring six months from now, what will that money mean? you shop around looking for memories somehow satisfaction don't come that easy it's a shame you weren't satisfied with me you're the saddest thing i've ever seen.

you're the saddest thing i've ever seen.
