Sleepin' in a way, she eases my mind
And lays me 'cross the bed 'til I close my eyes
Stirs me in the morning 'til I can never be satisfied
Well I leave Carolina every night in my dreams
Like the girls that try to love me that I only leave
Rock me like a baby doll and hold me to your chest
But I'm always moving too fast
If I could find my way back home
Where would I go?
And everything about me I used to be
Shivers in the sheets in the blankets of snow
Lost out in the woods; were you lookin' for me?
When, when will you come back home?
When, when will you come back home?
No one leaves the lights on
In a house where nobody lives
Loaded like the boxes up in the bedroom
I'm comin' off the hinges like a door
Your shadow's dancing up in the window
We're not who we are but who we were
And I'm not gonna break but if I do
I'm gonna shatter like the glass that turns your heart in to
Broken like the windows of the house that I used to live
And if I could find my way back home
Where would I go?
And everything about me I used to be
Shivers in the sheets in the blankets of snow
Lost out in the woods lookin' for you
When, when will you come back home?
When, when will you come back home?
When, when will you come back home?
When, when will you come back home?
No one leaves the lights on
In a house where nobody lives anymore
Everything about me in life is already gone
Everything with me in her is gone
When will you come back home?
When, when will you come back home?

When, when will you come back home?
When, when will you come back home?
