i dont know baby where we stand wheres the future that we planned..so long ago baby i dont know

and i dont know if your my friend or a long lost lover coming back again.. where did ya go i dont know

chorus
think by now i would know better i aint got a lot to show i could write a song or i could write a letter i could write a book about what i dont know watch my life fallin through the cracks like a long gone train it aint comin back..where did it go

well my past is pretty rocky and my future aint long why do i think we stand a chance at all..where does the wind blow
