I buy a lot of diaries, fill them full of good intentions Each and every new years eve, I make myself a list All the things I'm gonna change, until Janurary Second So this time I'm making one promise

Yeah, This will be my resolution, Every day is new years day

Oh, this will be my resolution, Every day is new years, day.

Well I believe it's possible, I believe in new beginnings I believe in Christmas Day, and Easter Morning too On the list it's doable, cuz I believe in second chances Just the way that I, believe in you

Oh, this could start a, revolution, every day is one more chance to start all over

One more chance to change and grow-oh, one more chance to grab a hold of, grace and never let it go

This will be my resolution, every day is new years day, oh, this could start a revolution, every day is--this will be my resolution, every day is new years day, whoa this could start a revolution, every day is--Every day is--this will be my resolution, every day is new years day, Oh this could start a revolution, every day is New, Years, Day. Hey hey--New years day.
