"Safe"

Once upon a time there was a little girl who came into this world, she was something and so her little mind couldn't understand why they treated her like she was nothing.

You could hear her in the night hear that something wasn't right by the way she cried to be a child was all she knew and all that she could do was hide inside.

In her dreams she flew among the stars in her sleep no one could touch her heart there she was safe from all the evil safe for just a little while.

When the morning came, the world was just the same her eyes are dying flame, a wishful thinking.
"Help me now", she prayed to the one above
"can't you make it stop?", but He never listened.

Tell me how she was to know that the one she loved the most, would hurt her so and so she walked into the night all that she could do was hide outside.

In her dreams she flew among the stars in the streets no one could touch her heart drifting alone among the people safe for just a little while.

And then one day, an angel came and in his arms she'll be safe till the end of time.

In her dreams she flew among the stars
in her sleep no one could touch her heart

there she was safe from all the evil
safe for just a little while.

In her dreams she flew among the stars
in the streets no one could touch her heart now she is safe from all the evil safe until the end of time, safe for ever.
