Ryan Huston - Daydreams Lyrics

I am lookin at you, you were lookin at me... seconds seem days you wear a smile, so delicately all in your gaze what you do to me, i just cant explain words cannot say
then you look away... from me
Thinkin of you, and wanting to say just how i feel if you knew the truth, then you would know me and know this is real i close my eyes and see everyday, visions of you so give me the time, and i can be great so i will play, for you

where are we, all is well, i can see, you're the well
save me and i will save you and i love u.....
and love u...
love u....
love u...
