There are some things I, need to say to you
You won't understand, but I hope you do
I must do this now, just to keep you safe

I fear you won't know me, so I must convey
That I love you more, more than anything
But I have to go, I must fight for you

And I'll always fight for you
And I'll always fight for you

I know our time was short , never thought I'd be Leaving whom I love, flying overseas
It's just how it goes, nothing I must fear

And I will miss you so, miss you everyday
I would die for you, this I'm not afraid
I will make you proud, its my solemn swear

And I'll always fight for you
When you think of me, think the best of me
That's all I would want to know
That I will be with you, that's a promise too
Just don't ever let me go

With all that I have done, I would do again
From the good and bad, 'til the very end
And I tell you now, I have no regrets.
And every thought of mine, will be spent on you You're the only home that I ever knew
I'll take your love with me, and always keep it safe

And I'll take it to, my grave
When you think of me, think the best of me
Thats all I would want to know...
And I will be with you, that's a promise too,
Just don't ever let me go
Don't ever let me go, you'll always be okay
I'm telling you, you're everything I'd ever want to be

Don't ever let me go, don't ever feel dismay

I'm telling you, just think of me you're afraid. You'll be here with me

and I'll take it to my grave
and I'll take it to my grave

[x2]

When you think of me, think the best of me
That's all I would want to know...
And I will be with you, that's a promise too,
Just don't ever let me go
