Hopes, untill I breathless and lying arround,
No, you don't get it till day that I'm gone,
And lies faceless within then calling me out just fake smile on your face, It's okay I'm ready to go on with it tears inside the hazel eyes

I'm lost my way back home, there's no one can save me
from drowned in sands of time, I'm lost my way back home, and this feeling keep killing untill my heart stops beating

Farewell is the only words can say, cause I'm losing my breathing away,
This is the last place I wish stay,
You walk away, and goodbye is the only way,
You just say I'm the reason, no, I won't stand the night,
Let it go, cause I wouldn't turning back

I'm lost my way back home, there's no one can save me
from drowned in sands of time,
I'm lost my way back home, and this feeling keep
killing untill my heart stops beating
