Fresh like the kiss of morning dew
That's how it felt that day we met
And I first laid eyes on you (yeah)
It's like you walked right about my fantasy
And then you left that day Girl why, did you abandon me Baby you'll see when you

And I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed to be, baby
Said I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed to be, baby
Now when I think back to the days you were mine Oh how I wish I can flip a switch to turn back the hands of time (oh baby)
You were the one that made me real Now that you're gone tell me what in the world am I suppose to feel.
Without you here with me
And I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed
to be baby
Said I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed to be baby

Listen
Something tells me I've been robbed
Of the love I felt that you should have given Never thought you'd leave me on my own
But I see that it's over
And I hope one day you're mine

And I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed
to be baby
Said I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed to be baby
And I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed
to be baby
Said I wonder if you'll ever find out how it was supposed to be baby(yeah)
