You said you loved her, but do you really?
You said you missed her, but are you sure?
You said that wishes don't come true
And I'm inclined to believe you because

If wishes came true, I'd already have you!
If wishes came true, I'd be loving you!
But they don't, so what can I do? I've
Lost all hope in myself.

Many times I tried to show you
How much I loved you. But you
Never acknowledged me. You said
That wishes come true, because
She left you, but I can't agree with you
Not this time because

If wishes came true, why do I still
Love you? If wishes came true, why do
I still want you? If wishes came true,
Why do I still long to be with you
Every day? If wishes came true, I
Could stop loving you. But they don't,
So what am I to do?

The more I wish, it comes out
All wrong. I can't figure out
Why they never come true.

If wishes came true, why can't I stop
Loving you? If wishes came true, I'd be
Free from this torture of wanting you.

IF wishes came true.
