"Snow White"

Little girl on a crowded street
Sunburned and sandled feet
I didn't want to see her cry

She said "Daddy, I cannot see
Is she coming? Tell me, tell me!
Snow White and her magic palace ride."

I said "Rebecca wait patiently,
She'll be here soon, believe me.
I'm your daddy, I would not tell a lie."

Well the tears just stopped, and she raised her hands
Started jumping around, like she was made to dance
And she was singing..

I cannot wait, for Snow White to come by
This day must be the very best day of my life
I cannot wait, for Snow White to come by
This day must be the very best day of my life.

[Repeat 2x]
