i'd like a house all made of clay with purple walls i'd sleep all day with an orange staircase and throw rugs with flower vases and coffee mugs i'd like to share my adobe house with you and our puppies and fish and mouse we could lie on our backs and lounge all day and open the windows all through may i'd like a kitchen with red and blue walls and i wanna hang pictures of us in our halls i'd like a backyard with a pool in the ground and a stereo system with a wicked phat sound

i'd like to share my adobe house with you sitting on our plush velvet couch we could paint the walls gold or maroon and i'd like to move there very soon i'd like a house that two stories high i could stay inside and bake cherry pie i'd put little candles all over the room we could sit outside under the moon every night

i'd like to share my adobe house with you by my side, that's what life's all about i sit sometimes and dream of the day when you and i can share out house of clay
