I see you smile at me.
Oh there's so much hormoney.
The joy comes burstin out of me...My feeling for you, they are so true. And if i loose you i don't know what to do.

I picture in my head, us over there, sitten on that chair, us together. Talken, laughen, playen, and joken. I prey that the love we share will last 4 ever.

The moments we share. I'm just so glad I'm with you.
You feel my heart with joy & happyness. I have so much love for you. oh my baby boo, ooh...

Forever our hands together. We could live like gold, as well as we been told. The #2 is for me and you. So you know that i won't play you as a fool. The love between me & you. I want you to know.....That i will always love you.....
