"Your Existence"

Visit "Your Existence" on MotoLyrics.com

It will never exist,
No matter how many times that you
Play this out,
When will it f*cking set in?
Your memories and everything about me,
Are slowly fading

Remember me as the one that got away,
And I'll remember you and everything,
That you will never change

This world is mine,
There's nothing for you,
So don't think that I,
Will find respect for you,
I was the one,
That you could turn to,
But this world is mine,
And there is nothing from you

You'll sort this out,
When you find it falling apart,
And after everything even my family,
Expected nothing from you

Expecting something from me,
Are these your memories?

Remember me as the one that got away,
And I'll remember you and everything,
That you could never be
Even my family

You took everything from me,
My life and my self esteem,
And now I'm taking you with me,
I'm taking this,
I am bringing you to the Bottom of this

This world is mine,

And I am everything that you could ever love,
This world is mine
And I am everything

You took everything from me
My life and my f*cking self esteem,
You took everything from me,
My life and my family
I will bury you and
Everything that you believe in.
I will bury you and
Everything that you believe in.
I will bury you and
