Girl, stop playing games
Go back to the bedroom,
Unpack your things
I know I spoil you
It's all my fault
But you can't always have it your way, no baby no

Oo-oo- I think you should Give one good reason for leavin'
If you could
And tell me who takes you down and pleases you just like a Lover
Nobody
Who always by your side never thinking about another,
Nobody
Who's always true and never plays with your emotion
Nobody
Tell me who's love for you is louder then comotion

Nobody but me
Why you actin' this way
What are you provin' with this display
Every time I say no
You say your gone
Knowing full well I love you
Let's just get it on

Oo-oo, baby you should Give one good reason for leavin' if you could
And tell me who takes you down and pleases you just like a Lover
Nobody
Who always by your side never thinking about another,
Nobody
Who's always true and never plays with your emotion
Nobody
Tell me who's love for you is louder then comotion

Nobody but me
Nobody yeah
Nobody can love you
Like I can yeah

Yeah nobody
Nobody but me

I'm thinkin' ooh
I think you should
You can't give a reason for leavin'
But I wish you would, yeah

Tell me who takes you down and pleases you just like a lover
Nobody
Who always by your side never thinking about another,
Nobody
Who's always true and never plays with your emotion
Nobody
Baby tell me who's love for you is louder then comotion

Nobody yeah
Nobody but me
Nobody baby
Nobody can love you
Like I can Nobody nobody

Tell me who takes you down and pleases you just like a lover
Nobody
Who always by your side never thinking about another,
Nobody
Who's always true and never plays with your emotion
Nobody
Baby tell me who's love for you is louder then comotion
Nobody but me
