Stuck in the lies that you told me what kind of life did I prefer?
did I get the news to late is that all there is Stuck with the gifts that you brought me
I threw them away and now it feels bad
Im hoping to find myself again is that all there is

Stuck with the stories you told me
You have to see it's a part of me
It's not gonna bring me back that's not all there is Keeping the thoughts that I made up
In my kind of world that's good enough
I'm trying to live my life again and that's all there is

Bittersweet is this experience always look for better days

I----- I like the songs you play
And I like the words you say
But now I see both sides
Now I see both sides

I----- I like the songs you play
And I like the words you say
But now I see both sides
Now I see both sides

Despite all I love you but now you have to let me go It's all been a circus -- so it's not bat at all and

I----- I like the songs you play
And I like the words you say
But now I see both sides
Now I see both sides

I----- I like the songs you play
And I like the words you say
But now I see both sides
Now I see both sides
