Psy- Psycho suicidal girl (psycho suicidal girl)

Everyone knows you're wasting my time
So why don't I ask you to leave?
And if you should go,
I want you to know,
That everything wasn't for free

I'll be charging for time
I had you on the line
We talked about the ills of this world
And now I'm praying for time
So all of you can die
You're a psycho suicidal girl

Everyone knows you're wasting my time
So why don't I ask you to leave?
And if you should go,
I want you to know,
That everything wasn't for me

I was trying to find
An ordinary time
But there was blood in my bathroom floor
So I'm paying the price
And though the sex was nice
You're a psycho suicidal girl

And if you should go
I want you to know
That everything wasn't for you
You
You
You

And everyone knows
You're wasting my time
Everyone knows
Everyone knows
