I thought I saw you in heaven
When I was there last night
They said you haven't been coming
So I walked to know you're alright
Then I walked down to where
We hold our movie star lives
They said you haven; t been coming
So I walked to know you're alright
And I walked to know you're alright

And if you find your way back home
I will be waiting on my own

I thought I saw you in heaven
When I was there last night
They said you haven't been coming
So I walked to know you're alright
And I walked to know you're alright
And I walked...
And I walked to know you're alright
