My, what a lonely tune
When I stare at you
It's a crime
So, where to go from here
It's the day I fear
Come quick, night

Help me
Was it you I thought I saw
When I was drowning?
And I see your pain and all your love created

How could you just leave me there?
Why don't you save me?
It's been years since I felt cold without you

Why are we not with you?
Where's the part you knew?
We were so sore
If you still love me then
Why do we ignore sink or swim?

Help me
Was it you I thought I saw
When I was drowning?
And I see your pain and all your love created
I thought I could smell your hair
But why would you care?
Was I everything that you ever asked for?

Help me
Was it you I thought I saw
When I was drowning?
And I see your pain and all your love created
How could you just leave me there?
Why don't you save me?
Was I everything that you ever asked for?
