I've waited far too long now
For this, my savored moment
Your eyes fill deep with terror
Your fate is now mine to decide! bear the scar of ignorance
Your world is nothing; obsolete
The time has come, I am your rebirth:
A beautiful awakening!

I must confess - this moment...
It's been foretold through ages
Your foolish silence ends now
Giggle as I fucking break you

Erase the past
I will annihilate you
Scream out the pain
I will now desecrate you

Erase your face
You will pray for the end
Bleed out the pain
I will you with my hate

I've waited long to show you
Just how much I want to see you DEAD!
Your worthless breath is taken
Now you will suffer as I please

Erase the past
I will annihilate you
Scream out the pain!
I will now desecrate you

Your pleading's too late
I giggle at your sorrow
Bleed out your pain

I will you with my hate
