She's staring at me she's giving me the creeps
She's staring at me now I can't fall asleep
And gee I'm hopin' she doesn't try to kill me again

She says I make her mad and I won't quit
She keeps on saying that she don't have to take my shit
And
Now she's getting all wound up again

Last time this happened she met me at the door
Standing in her bathrobe with a loaded 44
Now she's trying to push me down the stairs
That's why I don't think she cares.

She's staring...
She says I make her...
Last time this...
I don't think she cares
