One, two, three, four

Take my head, rip it open
Take the sickness [Incomprehensible]
Take my head, rip it open
Take the scissors sliced to kill

Did you wanna know how the humans being
Told the lies that you believe?
Did you know the human need
Is bigger than they ever prayed for, prayed now?

You can take my
You can take my
You can take my fucking head
And bury it in the backyard

Take my head, take my head
Take my head, rip it open
Take the stitches lied to you
Take my head, rip it open
Take the harness built for you

Dig you therapist a fucking grave
Big enough for the both of you
Dig you therapist a grave
Big enough for the both

Just forget now
You can take mine
You can take mine
You can take mine
You can take my fucking

Someone tell me how to live
Someone tell me how you live
Someone tell me how you live
Someone tell me how you live
How you live in here?

Someone tell me how you live
Someone tell me how to live

Someone tell me how to live
How you live, how you live in here?

You can take my
You can take my
You can take my head

You can take my
You can take my, [Incomprehensible]
You can take my
You can take my fucking head
