Cause ever since I was a child
I heard about the way you can change a person's life
I must admit though I used to doubt you Cause I really didn't see how you can rearrange someone's mind, oh mind
Recently my pretty peach ass long staller sweetness
And I don't believe my relationship can survive, no not this time
So hopefully when you get this message you'll pay us a visit
And bring back the good old days before my mistake gave a reason to fight Cause right now all we do is argue, no matter how much I apologize

I wish I could give her amnesia
Amnesia, where are you, and I really need ya
I'm calling 1800 - amnesia, come wipe it all away

And please erase her memory and the pain
So we can start all over again, again
We need you, amnesia
She can't forgive or forget Until she has a dose of that, amnesia

I know this is the last minute, I'm sorry
I just don't know who else to call up
My happy home is caving in and I'm tired
I'm trying to hold these falling walls out
She's blaming me, I'm blaming me, I'm so wrong
And I'm running out of time
Please come in amnesia,
Do that thing that makes it all rewind

I'm screaming amnesia, amnesia
Tell me where are you? and I really need ya
When I need ya, when I need ya, when I need ya
Amnesia, come wipe it all away

And please erase her memory and the pain
So we can start all over again, again

We need you, amnesia
Where are you
