Words can't express
Just how I feel
Keep them bottled up inside my heart
I only wish
You'd understand
That they're strong
And they're lasting
And they're real.

CHORUS

And I miss the way you cry
The way you car-wrecked me when I am out of line
Miss your laugh
I miss your voice
I've only kissed you once or twice
But once again that would be nice
Until we meet again.

I know that now
It's not too easy
But we'll work
Through the bad times
'Til they're good.
As for me
I have my doubts
In the end
It'll work out how it should.

CHORUS

And I miss the way you cry
The way you car-wrecked me when I am out of line
I miss your laugh
I miss your voice
I've only kissed you once or twice
But once again that would be nice
Until we meet again.

I never knew it took so much
To realize you're the one for me
Now I'm holding myself back
Gonna wait for you

I promise you that all this trouble will be worth our while but
Until then, until then
Until we meet again.

For now I'll see you
In my dreams
Even though they never really last
The only thing
That keeps me going
Soon we'll be together and these dreams will be the past.

CHORUS

And I miss the way you cry
The way you car-wrecked me when I am out of line
I miss your laugh
I miss your voice
I've only kissed you once or twice
But once again that would be nice
Until we meet again.

I miss the way you cry
The way you car-wrecked me when I am out of line
I miss your laugh
I miss your voice
I've only kissed you once or twice
But once again that would be nice
