"Valentine"

Only the best of me comes out when you're around
Only the best of me exists
Since I've found
Someone that won't let go
Someone that lets me know
No matter what she'll always be there when I fall.

CHORUS

Well I never really knew
How to say these words to you
This is the best I can do
I'll find the perfect rhyme
With one question in mind
Will you be mine?
My valentine.

I tried to forget you but I'm always thinking about Someone who's perfect and it's you I figured out.
You belong with me
You deserve to see that things can better
And you can be happy for a while.

CHORUS

Well I never really knew
How to say these words to you
This is the best I can do
I'll find a perfect rhyme
With one question in mind
Will you be mine?
my valentine.

Fell back and tried to fake it
Realized I couldn't take it
Sat back and saw you were further away
I let you slip right through me
Then realized how things should be
I'll attempt to just ask you this once
I'll ask you this once

CHORUS

Well I never really knew

How to say these words to you
This is the best I can do
I'll find a perfect rhyme
with one question in mind
Give it some time, yeah
Well I never really knew
How to say these words to you
This is the best I can do
I'll find the perfect rhyme
With one question in mind
Will you be mine?
Will you be mine?
My valentine.
