With a smile of a child
I remember today
and in my heart
place for you.
I lost it before
but now it hurts
risked and forgive,
but still you.

Shared,
changed the world
Separated
We killed you with laughter.
not stay
where nothing now
to live in us
painting dreams.

Tired
go back there again
to find
part of himself.
I know
will remain
the pain in us
and money
I know.
Will money.

I am not a child
but painting flowers
put in them and you
you're the world to me.
I cried and dreams.
I was extremely alone.
I wanted to forgive
but chose to keep silent.

Tired
still looking for love
to correct

Every wrong track
and to keep
where all of us
painting again
to give us life.

How to hide
behind thick walls
to remove
all these traces
where drowning
eyes in tears again
and money
I know.
Will money.

I ran, I did not succeed.
Quick-late.
without you live without a heart
Looking for a child with a heart of ice
I paint our flowers.

Shared,
changed the world
Separated
We killed you with laughter.
not stay
where nothing now
to live in us
painting dreams.

How to hide
behind thick walls
to remove
all these traces
where drowning
eyes in tears again
and money
I know.
Will money.
