Everything I do seems to make me think of you.
Why I dream of you every night,
Why I seem to like you,
I will never know.
All I really know is that you are a bit strange at times.
Other times you are nice.
You are my turkish delight.

You're my sunshine when it rains.
My everything all the time.
My turkish delight.
(Other times you are nice)
You are my Turkish delight.

Many of my friends despise you, but I never will.
That's something you should understand.
I miss talking to you.
Everything that I do makes me think of you.

You're my sunshine when it rains.
My everything all the time.
My turkish delight.
(Other times you are nice)
You are my Turkish delight.
(I miss talking to you)
You are my Turkish delight, San Diego.

Never forget that.
