When the moon is a lovely light
In the dark of your lonely heart
You came here on the angels side forever

Through the rain, through the fire
In the pain of desire
From a chain to a wire
I'll be free, I will see, I believe it

(In this world)
The world that we live in
(In this lifetime)
Oh, in this lifetime
(There's a place for your heart)
But you're gonna find it, baby
For your heart

(In this world)
The world that we live in
(In this lifetime)
Oh, these are hard times
(There's a place for your heart)
But you're gonna make it, baby
For your heart

Each day is a mystery
And a promise for you and me
Of a place where we will be free together

Through the rain, through the fire
In the pain of desire
